Conference Website

<http://www.econ.ubbcluj.ro/aac2009/conference/>

The conference continues its tradition in creating a simulative environment for accounting research that is beneficial for all participants and for the development of scientific knowledge at a higher level. We encourage initiative undertaking both new and well-known research topics. Moreover, the current circumstances offer us the opportunity for debate on issues related to the worldwide financial crisis and its connections with the accounting community.

Conference Location, Dates and Practicalities

The acceptance of selected papers will be announced until September 30, 2009 and will be done based on an extended abstract (1 page, see the format on the website) which must be submitted until September 20, 2009. Full papers should be submitted as MS Word or PDF email attachment before October 25, 2009. All submissions will be mailed to aac2009@econ.ubbcluj.ro.

The Audit and Accounting Convergence 2009 Conference (AAC 2009) will take place at Babes-Bolyai University, Faculty of Economics and Business Administration, 58-60 Teodor Mihali Street, Cluj-Napoca, Romania on November 25, 2009.

The convention fee is €150 (Payable to "Babes-Bolyai University") and includes attendance and presentation of papers within all 4 events. Convention materials, lunches, coffee breaks and the Welcome reception are included. The payment can also be done in cash at the registration desk during the convention, but this late payment version involves a €175 convention fee.

Registration procedures must be completed until November 1, 2009. Supplementary details are available on the convention's website (www.econ.ubbcluj.ro/aac2009/).

Second Announcement

The Faculty of Economics and Business Administration within Babes-Bolyai University

invites you to attend the

ACCOUNTING AND AUDIT CONVERGENCE 2009 ANNUAL CONVENTION

November 25 – 27, 2009

The convention hosts a number of four international events focusing on different areas of research in accounting and audit. The aim is to create a stimulating environment that allows fruitful debates on various interest areas. An international convention enabling open discussion on the undertaking research of all the participants would therefore optimize individual experiences and bring its contribution to scientific knowledge.

The four events focusing on more narrow topics are the followings:

- Audit and Accounting Convergence Conference
The conference offers the opportunity for debate on issues related to the worldwide financial crisis and its connections with the accounting community.
- Workshop on Accounting Education – Sharing Knowledge in an Ever Changing World
In order to keep up with the current challenges of global economy, accountants need a complex education that must combine intellectual abilities with training for a professional identity. This workshop seeks to examine current influences on the effectiveness of accounting education.
- Accounting and the New Labor Process Symposium
The symposium provides a forum for broad range of research that deal with all aspects of critical accounting and the labor process. A broad range of research methodologies will be considered.
- Transylvanian Initiative for Accounting Research Development Workshop
The objective of the research workshop is to provide junior faculty and doctoral students with feedback and supportive discussions on their research activities prior to the resulting paper being submitted to a quality journal.
